A LOOK AT THE CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

Next session: Wednesday, April 14 at 7:30pm
Life in Christ (Moral Conscience) with Fr. Kevin.

From the cluttered Desk of Fr. Kevin,

And the old man stood there, barely able to lift his eyes but each time he did all he could focus on was the love pouring out from the others eyes.

“Lord” he said, “how can you say you forgive me, for I am a terrible sinner?”

And God smiled and opened His arms.

And the old man dropped his eyes again and softly whispered, “I do not deserve your forgiveness.”

Again God smiled and then he spoke. “Because you know that you are unworthy is why it is so easy to forgive. For like the psalmist who cried out, my sins are always before me, against you alone have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight and then felt my forgiveness, you also I shall forgive.”

And the old man wept and walked into God’s arms.

Peace Fr. Kevin
