A LOOK AT THE CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

Next session: Wednesday, April 21 at 7:30pm
Life in Christ (Vertical Commandments) with Fr. Kevin.

From the cluttered Desk of Fr. Kevin,

"Peter do you love me?"

We could easily change this to our own names and hear Jesus ask the question of each of us and I am sure that the answer would be "Yes Lord you know that I love you." But just like in all things what does that word love mean to us? How is it lived out in our daily lives? For Peter and Jesus it meant feeding the sheep, taking care of them, leading them, teaching them, dying for them. It meant work.

Jesus has invited all of us into this love relationship. Our acceptance of His Body and Blood is our part of the covenant. We, through our actions have told God, that we need God in our lives, totally and completely. When we starch out our hands to receive, we accept humbly the greatest gift of all: the Body and Blood of our Lord and Saviour.

Peace Fr. Kevin
