MORNING PRAYERS

Tuesday through Friday 8:30am to 9am at St. Albert the Great (July 1st to September 6th)

GOOD-BYE AND THANK YOU

Our Youth Coordinator, Melanie Florentino, has decided to pursue other dreams. We'd like to thank Melanie for her service to our parish and our Youth Group.

From the cluttered Desk of Fr. Kevin,

“Christ is the image of the invisible God.” I have always found this to be one of those challenging statements. Try to follow my reasoning. If Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist, then as I gaze upon the Eucharist, I see God. If Jesus is truly present in the Precious Blood then as I look into the cup, I see God. If Jesus and the Holy Spirit are truly present in my family and my neighbours, then when I look at them I see God. If God is truly present in all of creation, then when I look around at creation I see God.

But if I see God in all of these, then what do they call me to do? If I can see God all around me, how do I respond? What does this presence of God all around me cause me to do?

Then again do I care?

It has been said that if we really believed in God's presence all around us, we would be forever on our knees or face down on the floor crying out, Lord I am not worthy!

One of the most blessed moments for me as a priest tends to be when I am praying the Eucharistic prayer and I look out at the congregation and I see someone crying, tears flowing down their face because they see and believe. “Lord I am not worthy, but only say the word and I shall be healed.”

What must I do to inherit eternal life? Believe!

Peace Fr. Kevin

WELCOME

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"You are worried and distracted by many things; there is need of only one thing." (Luke 10:41-42) Our society celebrates the capacity to multitask and people often seem to take pride in being busy. In all of our "doing", like Martha, we can neglect our "becoming", which as Mary, will not be taken away from us. Stewardship is not something we add to an already overburdened life. Rather stewardship asks us to re-think our priorities and re-shape our way of living in the world.

CATHOLIC TRIVIA ANSWER: I am the Lord thy God. Thou shalt have no strange gods before Me. The first Commandment states that there is only one God and one God alone and people should not adore any other Gods, not should they make any idols. In Luke 4:8, Jesus says, "It is written: You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve." English translation- where are you suppose to be on Sunday, the Lord's Day?
