From the cluttered Desk of Fr. Kevin,

So if you turned to your two best friends and asked them, who do people say I am, how do you think they would answer. Most often we confuse who and what but in either case the question holds true. Who do people think you are, how do they see you and understand you as a person.

As we celebrate Fathers Day we might want to reflect on how our dads are seen as dad. What makes a dad a dad? What are the important elements as seen from the point of view of a child, a spouse or even a friend? What makes dad, dad?

The Gospel today invites us to reflect upon who we think Jesus is for us, but I think we need to start a bit closer to home. And so we bring with dad and mom. Who are they for us? Our young people can reflect on what it means to be the brother or sister.

You might even want to have a bit of fun with this. As a group sitting around ask these questions.

You call me dad, what does that mean?

You call me mom, what does that mean?

You call me sister, what does that mean?

You call me brother, what does that mean?

All of God's creation is based on the image of family and the relationships within the family, but who do we say each other is, and then how can we extend that to God the Father, Mary our mother in faith, Jesus her son and our brother and the Holy Spirit our advocate and guide?

Peace Fr. Kevin

CLEANER REQUIRED

Our lovely Hanh is taking a well deserved break this summer. So we will need help cleaning the church from July 31st to September 7th. If you can commit to 3 to 4 hours per day Monday to Friday for 5 or 6 weeks, please call the Parish Office at 403-257-6054. This is a paid position.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

The Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head. (Luke 9:58)
Ancient Israel saw itself as homeless – a people in exile. Even upon reaching the promised land, Israel knew that it was merely a tenant on land that belonged to God. In today's Gospel, Jesus describes the spiritual exile of Christians from the heavenly kingdom. Our spiritual homelessness engenders our gratitude and challenges us to offer hospitality to the strangers in our midst.

DO YOU HAVE GOOD YARNS?

If you have any leftover yarn available, please leave it in the St. Vincent de Paul box in the Narthex. We have a lady at the McKenzie Towne Care Centre who knits touques, scarves, mitts, etc. for Calgary's homeless. All donations of knitting yarn much appreciated.
