A LOOK AT THE CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

Last Session until September: Wednesday, May 26th at 7:30pm Prayer in the Faith Life (Expressions of Prayer) With Fr. Kevin.

From the cluttered Desk of Fr. Kevin,

Ever noticed how in life things seem to be going in a circle? Jesus came from the Father and he returns to the Father. We are born by the grace of God and we die by the grace of God. We are totally dependent when we come into the world and often we are totally dependent when we leave this world.

We talk about the circle of life to help understand life, we use healing circles to help us heal from wounds and hurts.

Today we see the circle of Jesus' life made complete in His return to the Father, but the circle does not end there, for now the Holy Spirit will come and lead us in all things. Jesus does not leave us empty handed, rather he leaves us with gifts so that we might follow Him and live our lives as people desiring eternal life with the Father. In the life of the early church the followers of that time received those gifts and undertook the mission of spreading the Good News about Jesus Christ. They faced persecution and death, but they still proclaimed the message.

Today we celebrate Jesus' promise that one day we will be with Him, but we also need to remember our side of the bargain, proclaim the Good News without fear.

Peace Fr. Kevin

CATHOLIC TRIVIA ANSWER:

The correct answer is 3,000. Verses 40 and 41 state the following about Peter's preaching to the crowds: "With many other words he warned them; and he pleaded with them, 'Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.' Those who accepted his message were baptized, and about 3,000 were added to their number that day."
